

The Archangel Committee
The Russian Sister City Committee of Greater Portland

P.O. Box 105, Portland, Maine 04112

1990 - Year in Review

- January - University of Southern Maine professor Oliver Woshinsky and Archangel Pedagogical Institute professor Victoria Kamennaya exchange positions for the coming semester.
- February - A large package of books, photographs, letters and pins arrive at Newfield's Line School from Archangel School Number 6.
- March - Twelve Maine high School students travel with two chaperones to Archangel for the second annual month-long high school exchange. They study at Archangel School Number 21 while 12 students and two teachers from School Number 21 visit Maine and study at Portland High School.
- May - Archangel's Spoloki Camera Club exhibits its first show of photographs from the Portland Camera Club and committee member Dennis Marrotte.
- June - Greater Portland sends a delegation of eight street theater performers to Archangel's City Day. In addition, a large delegation of 45 people from Archangel visit Greater Portland and focus on historical, business and maritime themes.
- July - Fifteen students and two chaperones from Archangel visit Maine for a summer camp program.
- August - Our Committee wins a Sister Cities International Community Outreach Award for 1989; only 33 of 880 exchange programs are so honored.
- September - The ten-member Chaika Fashion Theater visit Greater Portland and put on several stunning shows.
- October - Archangel Pedagogical Institute professor Svetlana Guynutchinova arrives at USM to teach for four weeks. The Portland Public Library displays children's art from Archangel.
- November - The 24 member Jazz Group Archangel and Northern Russian Folk Chorus tour southern Maine and perform at several locations; the group is hosted primarily by Rex Davidson and his Jazz Band at Dixfield High School.
- December - Maine radio personality Jim Moran (WCLZ FM) leaves for Archangel. The Maine Sunday Telegram prints a full page of photographs from Spoloki's Nicoli Chesnokov.